Women in Dentistry

ABOUT THE COURSE

This course is dedicated to helping women dentists develop professionally and personally. Through a series of lectures and workshop experiences, this course will put the things that really matter in life front and center.

Attendees will leave the course with a better understanding of the journey that women undertake in dentistry, how to prioritize the myriad of challenges that women face, and most importantly, how to overcome some of these key challenges. The course blends pragmatism and science and art to show attendees a path to a more fulfilling life and career.
